CARMEL VALLEY FIESTA DE LOS AMIGOS this Saturday will revive the 1949 Fiesta that was a "rip-snortin' success," according to old-timers who still have happy memories of the kiddy and pet parade, the hilarious vaudeville show, Herb Brownell's Beans, and the big dance that night. The Saturday Fiesta will again have K.D. Mathiot who is pictured receiving his prize for best costume from Sam Brandt, who will again M.C. Behind him are Tio Artellan and just the legs and accordion of Marty Artellan, who will again be part of the Fiesta parade.

Valley's big Fiesta Parade on Saturday

By far the longest parade the Valley has ever seen will group on Pilot Rd. and proceed at noon up Carmel Valley Rd. to Holman's for the Fiesta de los Amigos.

No entry forms are needed and no judging of entries will be made so that informal fiesta spirit may prevail.

Grand Marshal Tom Verga, costumed Spanish caballero style, will lead the parade.

An hour of fiesta music before the parade starts will be furnished by Manuel Campos and his Mariachis with the cooperation of Local 616, American Federation of Musicians.

Representatives of Valley churches will bless the parade by the Madonna statue in the Village.

Gus "Gordo" Arriola will be among the individual riders.

Baez school use permit up for renewal

Request for renewal of the use permit for the Institute for the Study of Non-violence will be heard by the Upper Carmel Valley Advisory Committee Thursday evening, Sept. 22, at 7:30 at the CV Community Center.

The request asks that conditions 5 and 12 of the original use permit issued by the supervisors about a year ago be eliminated.

Condition 5 limits operation of the Institute from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. five days per week, Monday through Friday, and that no outside classes may be held.

Condition 12 limits attendance to no more than 20 students per session.

Other features in the parade will include the first fire truck to be used in Pacific Grove (the Carmel truck was found to be unusable), bands, mounted riders from the Carmel Valley Horsemen's Assn. as well as from the Trail and Saddle Club, a parade of antique cars, with such notables as Alan Pattee and Fred Farr, Carmel Valley pioneers Mr. and Mrs. Frank Porter.

Joe Hitchcock, Valley old-timer, will participate as honorary grand marshal.

Members of the Peninsula's

Antique Car Club won the gratitude of Valleyites when they gave up their club picnic in order to have their beautiful old cars ready for the parade. They will carry many of the dignitaries up the Holman hill.

At least a dozen vintage vehicles will also include the 1912 chain-drive Simplex driven by Charles Chayne of Pebbel Beach and the 1941 Pack-

CVPOA to discuss parks

Parks, with emphasis on the proposed Monterey Pines Park, will be the subject of the quarterly general membership meeting of the Carmel Valley Property Owners Association Wednesday, Sept. 28 at 8 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of Tularcitos School.

Two speakers will be featured: Gordon Hall of Monterey, architect and planner, will talk on the proposed Monterey Pines Park. He is a member of a group which owns 55 acres in the Jacks Peak Area, whose members are in favor of a Monterey Pines Park, and also of another group whose aim is to promote the entire park as suggested in the area master plan.

The other speaker will be Everet Gale, director of parks for Monterey county, who will talk on parks and recreation in Monterey county with special emphasis on Carmel Valley.

Pres. Rex Pryer also announced there will be reports on activities of the board of directors and committees.

CofC names nominating committee

Nominating committee for new directors of Carmel Valley Chamber of Commerce was announced by Pres. Tom Hefling at the directors' meeting Wednesday noon.

Committee includes Lou Gardner, Skip Marquard, Ken Van Hagen, Don McKenzie and Bill Norton.

Names of 10 new directors nominated for two-year terms will be presented at the October meeting.

Election will be held at the November meeting. New officers, to be chosen by directors, will take office with the new directors Jan. 1.

Grand prize give-away will highlight 'El Baile Escondido'

Four grand prizes will be given away at the magic hour of midnight at the Spanish Costume Ball, "El Baile Escondido," to be held Saturday, Sept. 24, at Holman's Guest Ranch as the climax to the Annual Carmel Sand Castle Contest Sunday

Sand sculptors please note: Sunday when high tide recedes at 9:32 a.m., the great annual Carmel Sand Castle Contest will commence. The event is sponsored by the Monterey Bay Chapter of the American Institute of Architects.

Judging starts at 2 p.m., headed by Chief Judge Boris V. Jacobowsky. Entrants of all ages must register at the official table, starting at noon, to be eligible for prizes.

Sand castle marshals will be Gene Takigawa, David Smith, Eddie Fischer and Jim Brady.

day-long "Fiesta de los Amigos."

Donations of one dollar per ticket go to the Carmel Valley children's activities, for which the Fiesta is being held. Ticket holders need not be present to win, and will have the possibility of winning either two round-trip tickets to Mexico City via Western Airlines on their "Fiesta Flight," one month's health club privileges at Rancho del Monte Health Resort, two tennis racquets from John Gardiner's Tennis Ranch, or $20 in scrip good anywhere in the United States or Canada, from Travelodge.

Tickets may be purchased at Abinante's Music Store in Monterey, the Farm Center on Carmel Valley Rd., Gadsby's Music Store in Salinas, the Pine Inn in Carmel, the Thunderbird Shop, the Carmel Valley General Store and many more. They will also be sold at a table at the Tantamount Theatre before, and during intermission of, Friday and Saturday night shows. All members of the Carmel Valley Women's Club will be selling them, and they will be sold throughout the day of the Fiesta, Sept. 24.

Capt. George Clifford is ticket chairman, assisted by Mrs. Frank De Amaral, Jr., Mrs. William Parham, Mrs. Dale Buche and Mrs. Tom Henderson.

RETIRING from school-bus driving for more college work, Manuel 'Taco' de Leon receives salutations from student-passengers Randy Crosby, Jon Avis and Sammy Lopez.

Final run for popular CV School bus driver, 'Taco'

Friday was the last day on the Carmel Valley schoolbus run for Manuel de Leon. He is leaving his school bus-driver job to further his education at Sacramento State.

Manuel de Leon is known affectionately by his school bus passengers as "taco" because of his Mexican ancestry. Born South of the border, he emigrated with his parents to Carmel Valley and attended Carmelo, Sunset, Carmel High and Monterey Peninsula College.

During his four years of driving for the Carmel Unified School District, he has never had an accident or citation. At times, for the safety of his charges, he had to be firm, but the kids respected his orders. The school district feels the loss of this well-liked employee.

After completing his education in business administration at Sacramento State, Manuel will return to the Monterey Peninsula area.

Still Valleyites are his parents, one sister and younger brother, Rod, the roly-poly part-time helper at Luis Wolter's Hacienda Market.

County announces schedule to seal coat local roads

Road Commissioner Bruce W. McClain, announced the following roads in Monterey county will be seal-coated on or about the dates shown on the revised schedule below:

Carmel Woods streets: Valley Way, Pescadero Rd., San Luis Ave., Lower and Upper Trail—Sept. 22.

Carmel Valley Rd.—Sept. 21. Yankee Point Dr., Yankee Beach Way, and Hacienda Pl.—Sept. 23

Jamesburg - Arroyo Seco Rd.—Sept. 30, Oct. 3, 4, & 5.

Residents are asked not to park on these streets on the date work is scheduled. Traffic will be subject to short delays, flagmen control, and speed restrictions during work periods.

Hearing expert speaks Sept. 27

Monterey County Chapter, Council for Exceptional Children, will hear Dr. Burl B. Gray, Monterey Institute for Speech and Hearing Director of Speech Pathology Research, speak on "Exceptional Children and Conditioned Therapies" at a meeting Sept. 27 at 7:30 p.m. at Hartnell College.

The meeting will be of special interest to teachers, speech therapists, administrators and parents of exceptional children, but the general public is invited to attend.

FIESTA de los Amigos

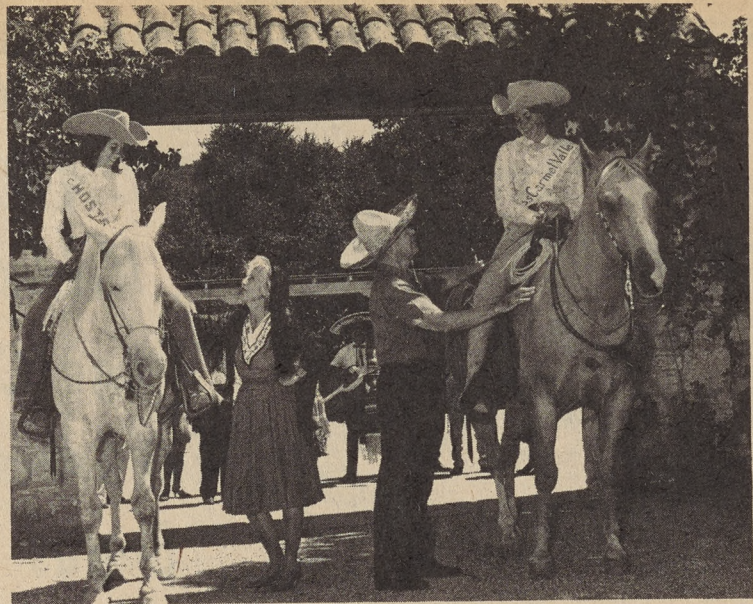

WHAT DID YOU DO at the old Fiestas, Daddy and Mommy? Well....those were might roarin' times, as you can clearly see by the old tintype of one of this first CV Fiestas back in '49 (1949). On stage from left are Millie Kimball, Joanne Smith, Tommie Cordrey, Joe Coelo and "Jedge" Faunce Whitcomb.

All's in gay readiness for the Fiesta de los Amigos this Saturday at Holman's Guest Ranch. Sponsored by the Carmel Valley Women's Club, the Fiesta has proved to be one of the best catalysts of the Valley's multiple talents; many are the people and organizations which have cooperated wholeheartedly to produce a true community fun-event.

AT RIGHT—Carmel Valley's 1966 "Fiesta de los Amigos" will revive the old Monterey spirit of the fiesta, a tradition held dear to Californians since Padre Serra first set foot on her soil. Walter Colton describes in "Three Years in California" how Californios worked not for money but toward the big Fiesta at the end of harvest. Pictured here in front of Colton Hall (and the monument now moved to Friendly Plaza) are 1924 Fiesta celebrators, Dr. Martin MacAuley, Marcy Woods, Gov. Richardson, Fenton Foster, Louis Rudolph Sr. (uncle of the 1966 co-chairman, Mrs. Larry Cummings), and Allen Griffin, president of the Monterey Peninsula Herald Publishing Co. A harvest moon will again shine for the Fiesta in Carmel Valley on Sept. 24.

Rockhounding is fun for Bob and Ruth Getz on day off from CV Market Meat Department

Meats are their livelihood; rock-hounding is their sport. Bob and Ruth Getz are the team which makes the meat department in the Carmel Valley Market run happily.

On their one day off a week, they like to achieve complete change by hiking in the rocky outdoors, alert for likely gemstones in the rough. They cut and polish them with their own diamond equipment.

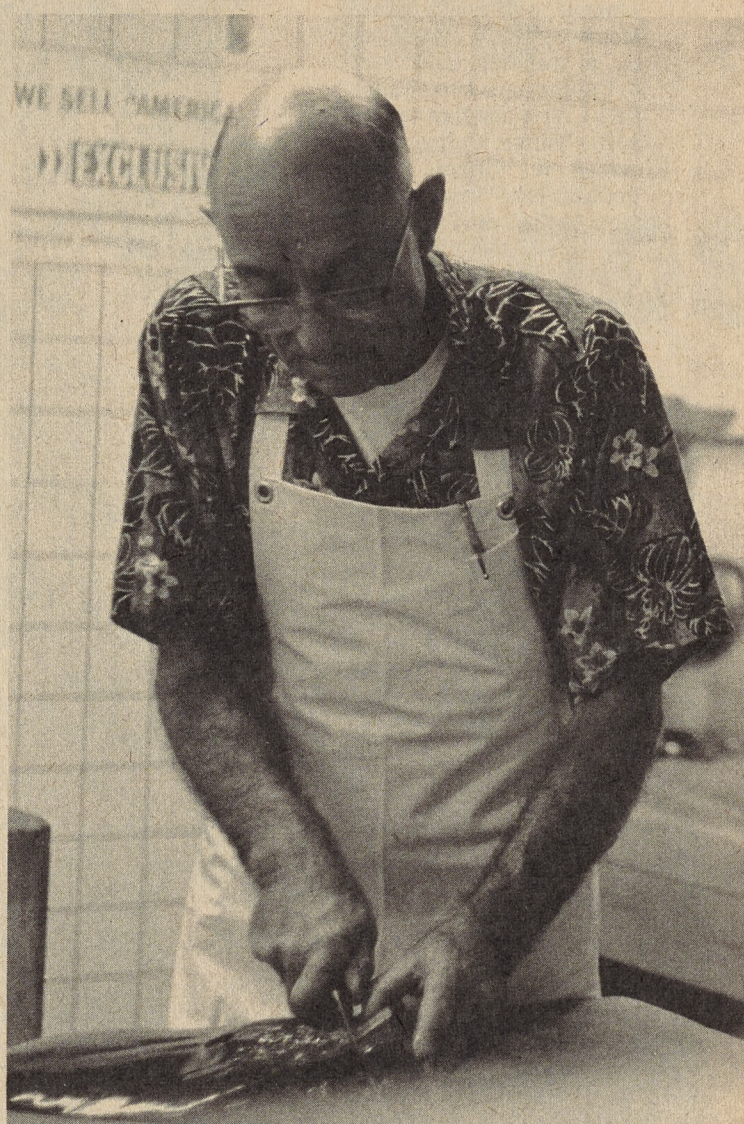

They are active members of the Carmel Valley Gem and Mineral Society in which Ruth is the "Pebble Pup" leader, helping and encouraging the young rockhounds. Just now she is helping them put together an exhibit for the annual show of the CV Gem and Mineral Society to be held in October at the county fairgrounds.

"The fun part of being a rockhound is hunting, finding, screening rocks and then cutting them yourself," she said. "It's a nice hobby because, for another thing, families can do it together."

Her mother, Mrs. Genevieve Murray, who lives in Pacific Grove, is the oldest member of the CV Gem and Mineral Society.

The Getz's, both Ruth and Bob, have found time for other youth activities. She has been a member of the Monterey Peninsula Girl Scout Council and was a Scout leader for about 30 years. When they lived in Pacific Grove, Bob was the skipper of the Sea Scout Ship. The Getz's hobby then centered around their own fishing boat.

Ruth started the first Brownie troop in Carmel Valley with their three daughters, Myrna, Kathleen and Jean. She moved up through the different divisions as a leader, from Brownies to Girl Scouts to Senior Scouts, then to the Council. Ruth is a native of Pacific Grove where her parents were also raised. Ruth's father worked for the water company there for some 30 years.

Bob can't claim to be a Native Son, although he moved when he was 12 to Pacific Grove with his family from Oklahoma.

He has been a butcher for 46 years. He began in the old Central Market in 1920, working for his uncle, Guy Getz.

In 1943 Bob bought out his uncle, and operated the market until 1956. He sold it at that time to open the meat department, which he operates independently, in the Carmel Valley Market which was brand new.

Carmel Valley wasn't new territory for the Getz family, for they had been living in Robles del Rio on Punta del Monte since 1950 and commuting to Pacific Grove. And Ruth's family had had a summer home here since 1933.

She recalled one of her earliest memories of Carmel Valley, viewed from a cart behind a horse, bouncing along the little road. "There were only ranches out here then," she said. "Not even a store."

During World War II when there was a shortage of help, Bob taught Ruth to be a butcherette and she worked with him. Even now her knowledge is handy, for she fills in when needed, and she is a mainstay of the business end of the market.

Bob also taught their oldest daughter, Jean, to be a butcherette. She is now Mrs. Allen Himmah, living in Tustin in Orange county. Her husband works for the state building-code department. They have four children: Christine, David, Mike and Ted.

Their middle daughter, Myrna or Mrs. Benny Loftin, lives in Danville, Va., with her husband and three children: Dorinda, Jeffry and Stacey.

The youngest girl of the Getz family stayed in Carmel Valley. She is Mrs. Kathleen Lutes, better known as "Taffy," and lives on part of the old Berwick ranch; husband Gordon is the great grandson of Edward Berwick, the original settler. They have specialized in boys: Bobby, Gordon, Jr. and Kenneth.

"That's 10 grandchildren," smiled Ruth Getz. She displayed a beautiful piece of rock crystal with a natural center of brown jasper, which she wears on a chain around her neck. "The grandchildren love this pretty piece; some of the smoothness around the edges is from their teething on it."

Robert Louis Stevenson article on Mission recalled as annual Fiesta nears

By MRS. CARL J. REIMER

On Oct. 9 the annual Fiesta de San Carlos de Borromeo will again be held at the historic Carmel Mission courtyard.

The spirit of the Fiesta promises to be as festive as it was in 1879, although the attire of the natives and the menu have changed considerably.

Some may notice that the dancing teen-agers in Crespi Hall have deviated somewhat from the Spanish-flavored Indian dances.

But the adults have promised to retain many of the original festivities, games, and entertainment.

Robert Louis Stevenson, the famous poet, essayist, and traveler described the traditions of the Fiesta in an article entitled "The Old Pacific Capital" which appeared in the London periodical "Fraser's Magazine" in 1880.

In the fall of 1879, Robert

Louis Stevenson went to Monterey, Calif., where he lived in one of the two adobe and wooden houses now known as Stevenson House, on Houston St. He lived there only three months, but he became deeply attached to the Peninsula.

ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON

"The Mission church is roofless and ruinous; sea breezes and sea fogs, and the alternation of rain and sunshine, daily widening the breaches and casting the crockets from the wall," Stevenson wrote, "As an antiquity in this new land, a quaint specimen of missionary architecture, and a memorial of good deeds, it had a triple claim to preservation from all thinking people; but neglect and abuse have been its portion.

"There is no sign of American interference, save where a headboard has been torn from a grave to be a mark for pistol bullets. So it is with the Indians for whom it was erected. Their lands, I was told, are being yearly encroached upon by the neighboring American proprietor, and with that exception no man troubles his head for the Indians of Carmel.

"Only one day in the year, the day before our Guy Fawkes, the padre drives over the hill from Monterey; the little sacristy, which is the only covered portion of the church, is filled with seats and decorated for the service; the Indians troop together, their bright dresses contrasting with their dark and melancholy faces; and there among a crowd of somewhat unsympathetic holiday makers, you may hear God served with perhaps more touching circumstances than in any other temple under heaven.

CORRECT LATIN

"An Indian, stone-blind and about 80 years of age, conducts the singing; other Indians compose the choir; yet they have the Gregorian music at their finger ends, and pronounce the Latin so correctly that I could follow the meaning as they sang. The pronunciation was odd and nasal, the singing hurried and staccato.

"In Saecula Saecula-horum," they went, with a vigorous aspirate to every additional syllable. I have never seen faces more vividly lit up with joy than the faces of these Indian singers. It was to them not only the worship of God, nor an act by which they recalled and commemorated better day, but was besides an exercise of culture, where all they knew of art and letters was united and expressed.

"And it made a man's heart sorry for the good fathers of yore, who had taught them to dig and to reap, to read and to sing, who had given them European Mass-books which they still preserve and study in their cottages, and who had now passed away from all authority and influence in that land—to be succeeded by greedy land thieves and sacrilegious pistol shots."

INDIAN LETTER

The noted historian, Harry Downey, El Capitan, has a letter in his possession which was written by the last of the Indian captains, at the age of 80. Alfonso Rameriz describes the preparations for the Fiesta de San Carlos de Borromeo during the years of 1875:

"I started to help the church, since I was 18 years (old), until now 80 (years old). We cut young pines to decorate and to give a festive air to the ruined church. We had to sleep at the church, as there were no doors or roof, to be sure that the preparations were not disturbed during the night."

This letter, dictated and signed by Alfonso Rameriz, was written to Father Murphy in 1932.

MPVS gives cash to youth centers

Carmel Youth Center received a check for $1,009.14 from the Monterey Peninsula Volunteer Service at its recent meeting.

This represented profit from sales at the MPVS Thrift Shop in Seaside for the first two weeks in August. Youth Center members gathered merchandise, sorted and tagged it and helped handle sales at the shop.

Carmel Valley Youth Organization also received $86 from MPVS, which will be used to purchase window and door screens for CV Community Center.

Beacon House in Pacific Grove is now working preparing merchandise for two weeks at the Thrift Shop, Oct. 12 through 23. Anyone having merchandise they wish to contribute to this organization, can call Beacon House for pick-up service.

Hospital sells auto for fund

Want to buy a tiny car so rare it is a collector's item? Community Hospital is offering one for sale to the highest bidder.

It is the 1940 Austin Bantam coupe which was the gate prize at the annual Concours d'Elegance held recently at Pebble Beach.

Interested bidders may see it at British Motors of Monterey. Sealed bids may be left at the show room or the hospital before 11 a.m. Sept. 23.

The car, which was just reconditioned, was donated to the hospital for the gate prize at the Concours by C. Taylor Pillsbury. Then it was won by Arthur C. Stewart of Pebble Beach, a trustee of the hospital, who has made a present of it to the hospital.

All proceeds from the sale will go to the hospital's building fund.

Applications available for competitive Monterey County Painting Exhibit

Application blanks are now available at the Monterey Peninsula Museum of Art for the third annual Competitive Exhibition to be held from Oct. 6 through 31, entitled "Monterey County Painting—1966."

Sponsored by the Museum Association, the competition will be held at their Gallery, Lincoln St. south of Ocean in Carmel, and will be open to all residents of Monterey County.

The prizes of $300 each will be awarded by the Director of the San Francisco Art Institute, Mr. Fred Martin. One of the three winners will also be chosen to have a one-man show at the Gallery in June, 1967.

An invitational preview will be held for those artists whose work has been selected to hang in the Competitive on Oct. 5. Sponsors and other contributors will be hosts to the artists.

Those wishing to participate should contact the Gallery at their earliest convenience to obtain entry blanks. Call 624-2918 for information.

Assistant bank manager

CHARLES F. ZIERT has been named assistant manager of Crocker-Citizens National Bank's Pebble Beach office, it was announced by Robert McKeever, Jr., vice president and manager. Ziert in 1963 was named an assistant manager at the bank's Salinas office, where he served until his present assignment to Pebble Beach.

Cypress Swim Club places in AAU synchronized championships

Marking the end of its competitive season, the Cypress Swim Club moved into finals for the first time at a regional meet, taking sixth and seventh places in team competition of the AAU 1966 Far Western Synchronized Swimming Championships at Paso Robles last Sunday.

The "Cotillion Waltz" team of Margaret Demarest, Jan and Sharon Roehl, and Judy Snyder took the sixth place ribbon, while seventh went to "Toy Soldiers On Parade," swum by Lindy Doud, Bonnie Banker, Susie Selfridge, Marnie Mark, Jo Anne Padjen, and Gail Downes.

In duets, Lindy Doud and Jo Anne Padjen of the Cypress Club, narrowly missed finals, placing 11th with their "Shades of the Roaring 20's." Jan and Sharon Roehl tied for 12th; Marnie Mark and Susan Selfridge took 14th; and Margaret Demarest and Judy Snyder 15th.

BPWC to Cinerama

Carmel Business and Professional Women's Club is planning an excursion to attend the Cinerama of "Sound of Music" at the Century 22 Theatre in San Jose on Sunday, Oct. 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bundgard, who moved recently to Live Oak Lane from Salinas, received word last week that friends from Yuba City were arriving complete with plans and dinner reservations in Carmel. The arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Andrews, daughter Kim, and son Mike, was part of a carefully contrived housewarming by a group of the Bundgard's friends. Mr. and Mrs. Gad James, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Ish, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Besmehn, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Southman and the Andrews were in charge of refreshments including a prepared dinner and a gift for the new home, a patio umbrella.

Others attending were: Mr. and Mrs. James Sloan, Mr.

and Mrs. Richard Schallach, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dudley, Mr. and Mrs. Oral Molman, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Voth. Dr. and Mrs. J.M. Fife, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kane, and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Homen were unable to attend, but shared in the gift presentation and best wishes to the new Valley residents.

In addition to a housewarming, the Live Oak Lane residence has been a busy place with three young people preparing for school. Heidi entered the seventh grade at Middle School; their daughter, Frances, left last weekend for the Univ. of Puget Sound where she will be a senior; and their son, James, leaves this weekend for classes at Cal Poly.

Friends gathered Tuesday evening at the Lower Circle home of Mrs. John Woods for dessert, coffee, and a showing of Fall fashions coordinated and commented by Mrs. D. Beale and Mrs. Mildred Ingersoll. Among those attending were Mrs. Fred Boehme, Mrs. Joe Branco, Mrs. Marilyn De Silva, Mrs. Michael Carter, Mrs. Andy Nottenkamper, Mrs. Lloyd Casarez, Mrs. Erasimo Belleci, Mrs. Harry Bixy, Mrs. Greg Scherman, and Mrs. Richard McKenzie.

The sports car racing world has a new little princess born Aug. 25 to Mr. and Mrs. Don Wester of Country Club Way. Stacy Chris Wester weighed 6 lbs. 11 oz. when she arrived at the Community Hospital. She chose talented parents when she picked the former Patricia Ramsey, well known for her dancing ability, for her Mom, and a Dad who races sports cars. Stacy's maternal grandmother, Mrs. J.C. Ramsey, is a resident of the Valley and her paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wester of Monterey Peninsula Country Club.

When the ladies of the Corral de Tierra Country Club began to plan for their Fall Bridge Luncheon and Fashion Show, their thoughts immediately turned to the star of last year's show, Joanne's Sportswear and Joanne's Boutique. Wednesday afternoon, before an audience of 75 members and guests, the latest in sportswear, afternoon, cocktail and evening wear was presented from the two Valley shops. Mrs. Stephen Schaffer of Country Club Drive served as fashion coordinator and commentator. Assisting her was Mrs. Eugene Oliverio and of course, Joanne Sears. Modeling were Mrs. Vincent Anselmo, Mrs. Lou Campbell, Mrs. Mark Fields, Mrs. M. Hitchcock, Mrs. James Fenoe, Mrs. Gerald Petkus, Mrs. David Eyres, Mrs. Don Grothe, and Mrs. Don Wolf.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hitchcock entertained Mr. and Mrs. Norman Oliphant of La Mesa, Calif., last weekend at their home on Merrill Way. Beth and Clyde met their weekend guests during motel days at the Adobe Oaks and have been close friends for many years. The visitors are really "absentee Valleyites" since they own property on Garzas Road.

David Partridge and Jeff Hudson garnered first place honors at the Tuesday evening meeting of the Valley Bridge Club. Other winners of the Monthly Masterpoint Tournament at the Carmel Valley Community Center were, in second place: Col. A.L. Friedenthal and Graham Matthews; and a tie for third place among Mrs. A.S. Bradley and her partner, Mrs. George Corrigan, and Mr. and Mrs. E.W. Gravelle.

Mrs. Erasimo Belleci served coffee and dessert to the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire Dept. who met Thursday evening at her Paso Hondo home. Mrs. Arthur Harber was appointed chairman of the Bingmobile which will be sponsored by the Auxiliary at the Fiesta as a snack booth.

Mrs. Jerry Vigus has returned to make her home in Carmel Valley while her husband serves in Bangkok, Thailand. Jerry, who recently completed A.S.A. School at Fort Devens, Mass., arrives this week to spend his leave with his wife (the former Joanne Hall) before his overseas assignment.

New Mark Thomas Inn manager hails from Scotland

GRAEME MACKENZIE, a native of Glasgow, Scotland, has arrived on the Monterey Peninsula to become general manager of the Mark Thomas Inn. Mr. Thomas met Mackenzie in Hong Kong where he was with the Mandarin Hotel. He has previously been with the Inverurie Hotel in Bermuda and a restaurant chain in London.

In the United States, Mackenzie has served as assistant manager of the famous Greenbrier in Virginia and worked with a hotel consulting firm in San Francisco.

Luncheon marks start Community Chest fund drive

The annual fund drive for agencies covered by the Community Chest of the Monterey Peninsula will begin Sept. 26 with a luncheon for volunteer workers at the Mark Thomas Inn. Mrs. Mark Hattan is chairman of the Carmel Valley residences. Assisting her will be Mrs. Arthur Massaglia, vice chairman of Robles del Rio; Mrs. Richard Gayman, vice chairman of the Upper Valley; and Mrs. Theodore Gawain, vice chairman of the Lower Valley.

Dr. E.P. Marcucci is once again heading the collections from Valley businesses. Assisting him will be members of the Carmel Valley Kiwanis.

Drive chairmen are urgently in need of volunteers to make door-to-door collections. Anyone, particularly new residents, willing to donate a few hours to community service, are requested to phone Mrs. Massaglia at 659-4430, Mrs. Gayman at 659-4359, or Mrs. Gawain, 624-5603.

Vidal's political satire, 'The Best Man,' is star spangled smash at Circle Theatre

The Circle Theatre is done up in red, white and blue these days to advertise the Presidential convention going on inside each Friday, Saturday and Sunday at 8:30 p.m. when The Community Theatre of Monterey Peninsula presents "The Best Man," Gore Vidal's biting political satire.

This rousing opener for the Circle's new season is played with great verve by an accomplished cast, chillingly realistic in portraying some of the nastier aspects of U.S. politics. It is directed in the round by Norman McPhee, who also takes a leading role.

John and Regina Hicks couldn't be smoother in their interpretations of Secretary William Russell, charming "egg head" candidate for presidential nomination and his estranged wife.

Also up for nomination is Mr. McPhee as Senator Cantwell. He plays the savagely ambitious man with sincerity and gusto. Cantwell is the "bad guy" who thinks he's a "good guy." Russell is the "good guy" who doubts himself.

Cantwell's sweetly scheming wife is played with acid wit by Elizabeth Klein.

Francis Hill is well cast as the president whose endorsement each candidate desperately needs, and gives the role strength, but opening night he let his "hick" drawl get monotonous.

Betty Fowlston provides the only untrifling laughter in a play full of snickers, as a committee woman who knows exactly what the females of America want in a candidate and his family, and is not shy about telling him.

Jim Kinney as Cantwell's stop-at-nothing henchman and FOUR MEMBERS OF THE JOHN BIGGS CONSORT will play and sing music of the Medieval, Renaissance, Baroque and contemporary periods in a concert Saturday, Sept. 24, at Monterey Peninsula College. The concert, free to the public, will start at 8:30 p.m. in the MPC Music Hall.

Bill Withers as Russell's intellectual right-hand-man are equally effective as completely contrasting characters doing the same job for their respective heroes.

Marshall Hambro has a good scene as an ex-army man scared but willing to slander Cantwell, and Dick Bird has a funny bit about a two-faced Southern Senator.

Peter Hanson, John Hicks, Richard Gardner and Mona Fletcher add to the roudy convention atmosphere with great nonchalance as brazen reporters and photographers. Dick Gardner also doubles as a psychiatrist and Anne Brown looks pretty as a secretary.

"Best Man" continues week-ends until "Hedda Gabler" opens Nov. 4.

O'Neill play, 'Hughie,' readied at MPC

"Hughie," a long one-act play by Eugene O'Neill, will be staged at Monterey Peninsula College Sept. 28 through Oct. 1.

The all-student production will be directed by David Allan of Pacific Grove.

There are only two cast members: David Hunt of Seaside, who plays a broken-down Broadway gambler; and Rod Sibley of Carmel, who has the role of a hotel night clerk.

Biggs Consort in concert at MPC

Surrounded by such antique instruments as the sackbut and the crumhorn, four musical performers known as The John Biggs Consort will appear in concert Saturday, Sept. 24, at 8:30 p.m. in the Monterey Peninsula College Music Hall.

The evening of Elizabethan instrumental and vocal music, presented by the MPC Community Services office, is open to the public without charge.

Director of the group is Mr. Biggs, who also is an instrumentalist and sings tenor. The other musicians are Salli Terri (Mrs. Biggs), alto; Harold Owen, tenor; and Claire Gordon, Soprano.

Community Theatre annual membership drive kick off

The Community Theatre of the Monterey Peninsula will hold a kick-off party for the annual membership drive to Thurs at 8 p.m. at the Circle Theatre.

Director Norman McPhee will present a scene from the current production, "The Best Man" and refreshments will be served.

Anyone interested in working on the campaign may call 624-2669 for reservations to the party. Circle Theatre is on Casanova between 8th and 9th.

Auditions for Ibsen's "Hedda Gabler" were held at the theatre Tuesday and Wednesday. Anyone wishing to try out who was not able to attend on those dates may phone for an appointment. There are roles for 4 women and 3 men of varying ages.

Italian film to open fall series at MPC

"La Strada," Federico Fellini's poetic film about a simple-minded waif, a brutish strong-man and a philosophical fool, will open the fall film series at Monterey Peninsula College Sept. 30.

A 7:30 p.m. screening in the music hall on campus will be followed by a discussion and critique moderated by Elliot Roberts, MPC English instructor.

Clare Fischer Combo coming for MPC appearances Friday Sept. 23

Clare Fischer, the noted jazz pianist-composer who performed for an enthusiastic audience at Monterey Peninsula College in April, 1964, will return to MPC Friday, Sept. 23, with his combo, the Clare Fischer Trio.

After morning and afternoon lecture - demonstrations for music students, and a clinic for the MPC Jazz Combo at 3 p.m., the group will stage a public concert at 8:30 in the music hall on campus.

Priced at $2, tickets for the evening concert will be available to the public from Sept. 19 in the college administration building. Students with student body cards may obtain free tickets from the student accounts office previous to that date.

The concert is being sponsored cooperatively by the MPC Associated Students and the college's community services office with the aid of Monterey Jazz Festival funds.

SERENE SETTING AT TASSAJARA BECAME SITE OF SUMMER

GIFTED CRAFTSMEN

ABOVE—It was just like Christmas when the kiln was opened. Mibbs Wood from Wilmington, Del., could hardly wait to take away the bricks from the primitive wood-burning kiln, which was constructed by the first ceramic class and then improved upon as each class experimented. The jug which Mibbs holds was done as beginning piece by Tassajara owner, Bob Beck. No glaze was put on the pieces but salt was added at intervals of firing and some pieces were affected by it. The clay used had a large amount of mica in it which turned gold in color when fired and gave an interesting effect against the pale pink terra cotta color.

AT RIGHT—The lost wax casting method of jewelry making was taught by Bob Winston. We had to leave before any of the pieces were actually cast, but Bob was instructing his class in how to place the wax design in the round receptacle used to make the mold. The plaster-like material was then poured around the design and placed in a vacuum pump. The centrifugal casting machine would force the molten gold or silver into the cavities left by the wax and voila! the final product is the piece of jewelry which had taken form in the original wax. Winston, who has been involved in many art forms, revived the art of lost wax casting when he wanted to teach a course which he had designed for a college in the Bay area. They wanted someone who was "famous" for something to teach. He investigated all kinds of arts and crafts...discovered that there were too many potters, sculptors, painters, weavers, etc., so he decided to make himself famous for lost wax jewelry making...he did!

In one of the most peaceful settings in the country, the creative enthusiasm was at fever pitch all summer at workshops at Tassajara Hot Springs. Participants came from throughout the United States.

During the middle of August, three workshops of entirely different character were being conducted at the same time...by instructors from just as widely separated homes as their pupils.

Perhaps best known to Californians is Hal Riegger, who conducted the workshop in pottery.

The unique quality of the workshops at Tassajara is the fact that everyone worked under the most primitive of conditions. Bob Winston brought his own portable equipment for the jewelry workshops. Trevor Long did his glass fusing in a kiln made from a 50-gallon oil drum fed with butane.

The kiln for pottery was made by the first pottery workshop in June. It is made beehive shape and is fired with wood. The bricks of which it is constructed are chinked with native clay to retain the heat. The tall, tall chimney is made of cans fitted together and steadied with guy wires.

People involved in the workshops combined many hours of creative activity with walks on the trails of the Los Padres National Forest, afternoon naps, a swim in the pool or baths in the healthful mineral waters of the hot springs. Interest and enthusiasm was at such a pitch that many worked in the evenings after dinner.

Tassajara Encounter, which was offered for the first time this summer, proved to be a tremendous success, according to those who enrolled in the various two week workshops.

Principal Warren Edwards launches new 'Newsletter for Carmel High parents'

First issue of a new "Newsletter to High School Parents" from Principal Warren W. Edwards of Carmel High School was mailed last week.

Edwards explained that he hoped his random thoughts, which he proposes to circulate in a monthly newsletter, would help to clarify "our program, our policies, our problems and our plans for the future." He added that there is a basic problem of communication with the interested public and he wished parents would take advantage of his cordial invitation to drop in to discuss student and school questions.

OPENING OF SCHOOL

"Old-timers on the staff tell us it was the smoothest opening day of school in 22 years," his Newsletter declares. Teachers' class lists and students' schedules were more accurate than usual, thanks to "the high degree of cooperation we received from the staff in the computer lab at MPC."

Edwards predicts that future assemblies and rallies will have to be held on the football bleachers, because the opening-day assembly showed "we have outgrown the seating capacity of our gym."

ATTENDANCE PROCEDURES

Importance of verification of absence from parents was stressed, even "a phone call is sufficient." This is because a "sizeable portion of our income from the State of California is dependent upon accurate accounting for students' absences."

The principal added that illness, doctor or dental appointment or death in the family are the only reasons acceptable by law for absence.

"Unexcused absence from school carries with it the penalty that work cannot be made up for credit. If we know in advance of an absence essential to the family, we can lift the make-up penalty—but the absence remains unexcused."

SPECIAL HELP

Teachers are usually available after school for special help, although responsibility for initiating appointments for special help or make-up work must lie with the students. "Students are urged to make advance arrangements and not to be easily discouraged if immediate help cannot be furnished."

COLLEGE

College-bound juniors should take the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test in October.

Seniors heading for college are urged to plan to take either College Entrance Examination Board test or American College test, whichever the colleges or universities they are applying to require.

SCHOOL DRESS

Edwards calls "the matter of appropriate school dress a most important one in setting a dignified and business-like atmosphere at school... We ask your help in outlawing these extremes of dress and grooming which we have repeatedly specified in the students' handbooks and frequent announcements."

Coats and ties are required at all school dances, except costume affairs. "Students just don't fool around when dressed up," he explained.

REPORTS

Report cards will be mailed home about Nov. 17, Feb. 9, April 20, and June 22.

"Cinch notices," indicating need for improvement or impending failures, will be mailed about a month prior to report cards.

Edwards urged parents to talk with their students every day about school progress. "I would suggest that the answer of 'Oh, it's OK,' is not a very good evaluation of progress made in classes. Something a bit more descriptive and positive might be sought by parents."

He stressed the value of parents' communicating with teachers and counselors. "Before it is too late" if students seem to be having trouble.

New arrivals

Community Hospital was the locale of arrival of several new citizens of Carmel and Carmel Valley recently.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rocciolo of 53 Hitchcock Canyon, Carmel Valley, welcomed a new daughter, Anita Elvira, Sept. 7.

Sheryl Lee is the new daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Jackson, Rt. 2, Carmel, born Sept. 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schiavoni, Rt. 3, Carmel, are parents of a son, Ernest Joseph, Jr., born Sept. 2.

Also arriving Sept. 2 was another boy, Keith Walter, born to Mr. and Mrs. John Guzik, Carmel.

WHAT'S DOING?

Some important words on a serious subject

I hope you never receive a malicious phone call, but if you do, here are some things you can do to discourage the caller:

Hang Up—if the caller doesn't answer when you say "hello."

Hang Up—at the first obscene word or improper personal question.

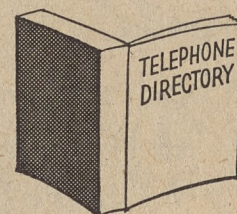

Hang Up—if the caller doesn't identify himself to your satisfaction. And remember, never give your telephone number to an unknown caller.

If malicious calls persist, call our Business Office. We have employees who are trained to assist and advise you and who can frequently help in identifying the origin of unwelcome and troublesome calls. Obscene or threatening phone calls violate state laws, and conviction can result in fines and imprisonment up to six months. Your Carmel Valley Service Representative may be reached by dialing 375-1511.

Remember that the time is growing short to borrow, make, rent, or buy a costume for the Fiesta de los Amigos. It would never do to arrive in the land of "Spanish Make Believe" looking like a "Gringo." We were interested to learn that the colorful word used regarding a stranger of American or English descent in Spain or Latin America, originated during the Mexican Wars because of a lusty Irish campaign song, "Green Grows the Grass"... hence the nickname, "Gringos."

Where in the world would it be possible to held a morning Koffee and lingerie party on a patio but in sunny Carmel Valley! Mrs. Y. Ascarate, Jr., invited friends to a showing at her Aliso Road home last Wednesday, commented and coordinated by Mrs. Pat Douglas. Models were Mrs. Don Brill and the hostess, Barbara.

Among those attending were: Mrs. Don Koontz, Mrs. James Miller, Mrs. Dorothy Holley, Mrs. Larry Feldman, Mrs. Ben King, Mrs. Deanna Holman, Mrs. Eric Scarlett, Mrs. Tom Bordonaro, Mrs. William Edwards, Mrs. Linden Egli, Mrs. Lloyd Todd, Mrs. Richard Crane, Mrs. Edward McGlochlin, and Mrs. Thaddeus Drobek.

A pretty birthday cake decorated in mint green and pale blue, symbolized 419 years for the five Carmel Convalescent Hospital patients whose September birthdates were observed by Carmel Valley Lionettes. Mrs. Larry Feldman is in charge of the project designed to bring happiness to patients on special occasions who do not have friends or family. Mrs. Lloyd Todd baked the September cake shared by Leo Zahner, born Sept. 14, 1875; Ann Fuches, born Sept. 23, 1885; Edna Johansen, born Sept. 16, 1878; Florence Michaels, born Sept. 9, 1886, and Grace South, born Sept. 28, 1877. Many happy returns!

Mrs. Jane Cropley is in Albany, N.Y., for a visit with family and friends. She makes her Valley home on Lilac Lane with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Laird.

George Palmer, acting lieutenant of the Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire Dept., served as Valley representative last week at the meeting of the board of directors of the Central Coast County Firemen's Assn., held at the Salinas Rural Fire Dept.

"New Developments in Psychiatry" was the topic chosen by Dr. Dale Buche of Robles del Rio when he spoke before the Valley Center Optimist Club at a recent meeting held in Salinas.

A warm Valley welcome to new neighbors from Scottsdale, Ariz., Mr. and Mrs. Larry Eversull. With children, Stephanie, 12, a student at Middle School, and Allen, 10, a fifth grader at Tularcitos, the Eversulls are presently renting the former Biggs home on El Camino. They discovered the Valley on a Sunday drive, and find our climate pleasing after life in "the Grand Canyon State." Mr. Eversull commutes to Salinas where he owns industrial properties.

Recent additions to the long list of house trailer fans are the names of Mr. and Mrs. William "Bud" Hall, who have returned from a 2,000 mile trip. Accompanied by their nieces, Gail and Sherry Gayman, they drove up the California coast, joined by three families from Portland on their camping expedition. After shopping in Portland, Ore., for school clothes, they made their way down rugged Willamette back roads to Oakridge, where they found signs marking the road "not advised for trailer travel!" The trip home was made through Diamond Lake at the foot of beautiful Mt. Thielsen, where lake trout are only one size—large!

R.M. Hebert, chairman in charge of the buckboard committee for the Fiesta parade, while in Los Angeles on business, talked with Fats Jones, who has a wagon junkyard. Equipment of every possible design and description down through history is rented here to the movie studios, even "junkers" put together to simulate wrecks in motion pictures. Mr. Hebert obtained ideas and advice on his exciting plans to rebuild and restore many of the wagons discovered in the Valley that are not safe to use in this year's celebration, but could be made ready either to use as historic props about the Valley, rent as a community project to motion picture companies on location, or use by various community projects and activities. Anyone having even parts of early conveyances which could be used to build other wagons, are asked to contact Mr. Hebert (659-4748) or drop him a card at P.O. Box 377.

Valley fire calls

The Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire Dept. was called to the Bishop residence on Esquiline Rd. Sept. 7 at 3:18 p.m., where there was a reported leak in a butane tank. Fire fighting equipment stood by until gas servicemen arrived.

The Valley Dept. was called to extinguish a mattress fire at the Basil Frobisher residence Sept. 9 at 7:30 p.m.

Garden party planned to benefit

Demo candidates

There will be two experienced baby sitters to watch children while their parents attend the garden party, "Around the World with Famous Foods," next Sunday, Sept. 18, at the Harwell Dyers, 90 Boronda Road. Starting at 3 p.m., demi-Democrats may be left at a nearby home where they will have ample space to romp and a party of their own. The cost per child is $1.00 for the entire afternoon and special rates will be given to families leaving more than two children.

For further information you may call Irene Baldwin's office at 659-2216 or Sen. Farr's Headquarters in Carmel at 624-8251 where last minute reservations may be made. Tickets are $2.00 each and the public is cordially invited.

The party is a benefit for California's Democratic candidates, and the three local candidates, Sen. Fred Farr, Gerald V. Barron and Irby Bourriague, will be on hand to greet the guests.

"Around the World with Song and Dance" will feature folk singing by Lisa and Joe, and folk dancing by Al Daoud's Greek dancers. The entertain-

The SAAB can do things other cars wouldn't dare do.

On any road, in any weather, SAAB is a more daring car to drive because SAAB has front-wheel drive. The fantastic traction of front-wheel drive lets SAAB hold on to the road for dear life. (Your dear life.)

Other cars don't give you, even as options, all the safety features that are standard in SAAB. For example, roll-bar construction, collapsible steering column, three separate braking systems.

On country roads and on super-highways, SAAB is a safe and daring car. (And SAAB also dares those so-called economy cars to match its low operating cost.) SAAB

CARMEL VALLEY GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB will be the scene this Saturday of a dinner gathering of the Women's Auxiliary to the Monterey-San Benito Counties Medical Societies, featuring Miss Jane Nickols with her unique, one-woman show, "Musicals in Miniature." In charge of arrangements is Mrs. Gaylord Bennett, assisted by Mesdames William Lewis and Charles McIntyre of Carmel, Mrs. Philip Thorngate of Pebble Beach, and Mesdames John Thomas, James Farr, Robert Helfrich and William Keller of Salinas.

The Rhyming Philosopher

Upheave within your graves, you man of sev'nty-six,
And you who turned the awesome tide at Bunker Hill:
Now your gaunt ghosts, aroused by senseless politics
Must shriek in horror as we calmly wait the kill.

At Lexington you gave your all in Freedom's name;
Your comrades lived to win no less than Victory.
Why should we stand aghast today and meekly claim
No victory is possible on land or sea.

What kind of men now guard our nation's destiny?
Who stays the sword before the final blow is struck?
Shall Freedom then survive at all if less than free,
And hope the enemy won't kill the sitting duck?

Think not that tears or arguments can now prevail
Against an enemy who either dies or wins.
But if you do 'tis better that you join your wail
With those already dead, for now the end begins.

America! Has treason tied your arms with chains?
Must all we fought for in the past be thrown aside?
Awake, America! Give patriots the reins
And drive for Victory 'ere will to win has died!

Tularcitos parents meet Tuesday

Parents Club of Tularcitos School will hold their first meeting of the year Tuesday, Sept. 27, at 8 p.m.

Dr. John Davis, incoming president of the Parents Club board, stressed that this meeting is the annual opportunity offered parents to meet their children's teachers and to visit their classrooms.

Preceding the classroom visits, there will be the annual in-gathering of membership dues ($1.00 per family), an introduction of Tularcitos faculty members by Principal William

Mallek, and a short business meeting which will include the enlisting of room mothers

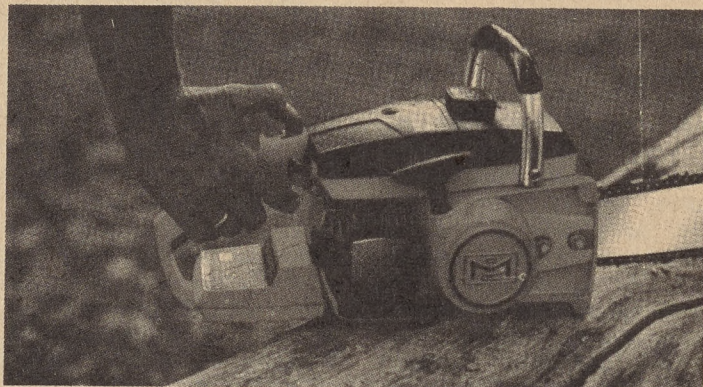

Following visits to the classrooms, parents will be served refreshments by the new Parents Club board. Serving with Parents Club Pres. Dr. Davis this year will be vice president Richard Kern, treasurer Mrs. Fred Boehme, membership chairman Mrs. Richard G. Lee, recording secretary Mrs. Frank Sclawy, corresponding secretary Mrs. John Senger, and social committee chairman Mrs. Robert Byers.

Carmel and CV students at Davis

Approximately 1900 new students have been added to the Davis campus of the U. of California for the fall quarter, according to Registrar Elmer Wagner.

The total enrollment for the upcoming quarter is expected to reach 9000. This is an increase of 1100 students over the 1965 fall enrollment.

Helping swell the ranks is Orley M. White, freshman in pre-veterinary medicine, from Carmel Valley.

From Carmel are Sandra R. DeCosta, Carol J. Imwalle, Hazel B. Jacoby, Susan F. Kramer, and Nancy J. Thompson, all freshmen in letters and science. Catherine V. James is a sophomore in botany.

White Oaks Theatre announces Training Centre fall schedule

With three instructors slated to conduct its classes, White Oaks Theatre's Community Training Centre has announced its schedule for the coming semester. A variety of dance classes are being offered for all age groups as well as a new Informal Play Reading Group scheduled for Monday evenings at the studio in the Cummings Building.

On the "faculty" for the coming term are Gale Peterson, Sandra Lundwall, and Barbara Blevens. Peterson, artistic director for White Oaks, has taught in the Valley for many years during which he has continued his lifetime involvement with theatre, choreography and contemporary dance study.

Miss Lundwall, who taught last Spring at the Centre, is a recent graduate of San Francisco State College, has had dancing leads in many White Oaks productions and appeared with ballet companies throughout many years of training (this summer she instructed and choreographed for the musical company).

Mrs. Blevens, who resides in the Valley with her husband and two children, has fifteen years of ballet and modern dance training to her credit, as well as four years as dance instructor for nursery school youngsters.

The White Oaks training objective, according to general manager Ron Mitchell, is to place the student in a progressive program leading from beginning dance to pilot classes and specialization in specific dance forms. He emphasized the need to let each youngster get his or her own particular values from study by teaching dance and movement appreciation to the "semi-interested" as well as the "committed." It is the feeling of all three instructors that "hard-and-fast" guidance can be not only physically dangerous for the youngster but emotionally disillusioning as well.

Registration will be conducted at the theatre through Oct. 1.

The schedule and cost break-down for the winter program are as follows:

Mondays	11-12	Pre-School, Kindergarten	Blevens
	2-3	Kindergarten, 1st Grade	Blevens
	3:30-4:15	2nd, 3rd Grade	Lundwall
	4:30-5:30	7th, 8th, 9th Grade	Lundwall
	8-9:30	Informal Play Reading	Staff
Tuesdays	9:30-10:30	Ladies Exercise	Lundwall
	3:30-4:30	4th, 5th, 6th Grade	Lundwall
	4:30-5:30	Pilot Class (advanced)	Peterson
	7:30-8:30	Modern Jazz	Lundwall
Thurs.	4:30-5:30	Pilot Class	Peterson
Kindergarten, 1st Grade, Pre-School.....			$10/10 lessons
2nd-9th Grade, Exercise, Modern Jazz.....			$17/10 lessons
Pilot Class.....			$20/10 lessons
Play Reading.....			$5/month

Leading interior designers to attend conference here this week

Belva Sanford (F.A.I.D.), who writes the column on interior decorating for The Outlook, is among the hostesses for eighty of the nation's foremost interior designers who will spend three days on the Monterey Peninsula. Other local hostesses for the program of sightseeing and entertainment are Mmes. Nelle Currie (Mrs. Al Fry), Robert Hancock, Jo Grace Foltz, Dorothy Constans and Myrtle Ferber. All of the ladies are active as interior designers in Peninsula firms.

The eighty visitors, who are all members of the American Institute of Interior Designers, have been attending the 35th annual conference of AID in San Francisco. They will visit historic adobes, the Big Sur coast, enjoy meals at Gallatin's, Highlands Inn and a cocktail and dinner party at the Beach Club while touring the Peninsula.

Among the outstanding designers who will be entertained are: the Countess Gozzi of Venice, Italy, head of Fortuny Fabric; Marian Shoenfield, Marshall Field and Co. head designer; Keith Wells, design director for Callaway Mills, and Louisa K. Cowan of Scalaman-Silks.

New members welcomed at Sodality meeting

New Prefect Ruth Allaire presided at the first fall meeting of the Sodality of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Tuesday evening last week.

Father Jim Voytko wished continued success to all members, and welcomed several prospective members.

It was noted that the Sale-a-Rama rummage sale will continue on a weekly basis of each Friday from 1 through 4 p.m.

The highlight of the evening was the showing of an exquisite antique candlestick donated to the Sodality. Tickets will be sold for 25¢ each on this lovely item, and the drawing will take place on Oct. 18. The candlestick will be on display at Sugar 'n Spice children's shop in the Village.

Father Juan Oronoz, the Sodality's director, concluded the meeting with a talk on the spiritual influence of women in the home, community, and the nation. His guidance continues to inspire the Sodality in their many projects.

Oct. 18 is the date of the next meeting of the Sodality, a guest speaker will be present, and all the ladies of the Valley are cordially invited to attend at the church hall at 8 p.m.

MRS. THURMAN H. BANE of Monterey, standing far right, explains that $1.00 donation will entitle you to a door prize drawing at Monterey Peninsula Volunteer Services "Tombola" to be held Oct. 12 at the Monterey fairgrounds while (reading left to right) Mesdames Frank W. Lang of Carmel Valley, assisting with properties and decorations; Ellis P. Egan and Clare Appleby, both of Carmel, co-chairmen of the hobbies booth, admire some of the articles to be sold for the benefit of the Monterey County Symphony Assn., the Visiting Nurse Assn., and the Family Service Agency.

MPVS seeks gifts for annual 'Tombola' benefit Oct. 12th

1966 Monterey Peninsula Volunteer Services "Tombola" will be held Oct. 12—Columbus Day—Discovery Day—at the Monterey fairgrounds from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Donors who wish to help this organization with its good deeds for community enterprises may have their gifts picked up by telephoning the General Chairman Mrs. C.L. Underwood, 659-4559; or by contacting Mrs. C. Getty Fairchild, 659-4376, or Mrs. Frank Long, 659-2333. Mrs. Hatton Martin, 659-4485, is a member of the pick-up committee, as is Miss Peg Bowen, telephone number 659-2392.

Linens, curtains and draperies, rugs, furniture, household articles, pots and pans, electrical appliances, next-to-new clothing, objects of art, jewelry, accessories, lamps, table ware, potted garden plants—anything attractively saleable, in usable condition, which can be offered at "Tombola" to benefit the Visiting Nurse Assn., the Family Service Agency, or the Monterey County Symphony Assn., will be welcome.

Trout planted

Monterey county streams and reservoirs received 94,000 catchable trout planted this past summer by the Department of Fish and Game, the Dept. announced this week.

Biggest planting was 56,000 trout in Lower Nacimiento River, which receives heavy use by anglers between Nacimiento Dam and Salinas River.

Oct. 2 date set for T&S Club annual gymkhana

Fourth annual open Gymkhana is scheduled Sunday, Oct. 2, by the Carmel Valley Trail and Saddle Club at the Club grounds. Sam Boardman has been named chairman, Pres. Bob Angell announced.

Fourteen varied events are scheduled during the day, beginning at 10 a.m.

Trophies or merchandise awards will be presented to first-place winners, with ribbons for those scoring through fifth places.

Advance entries are urged to be mailed to P.O. Box 521, Carmel Valley. Further information is available from Angell or Boardman.

Valley ambulance makes 4 calls

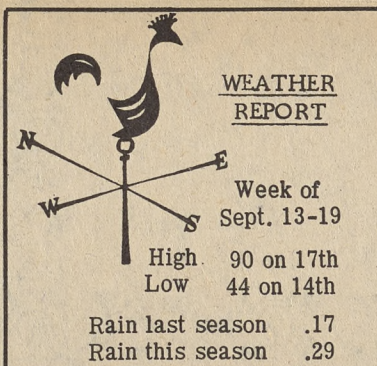

The Red Cross ambulance operated by first aiders from the Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire Dept., was called to the Canary Cottages Sept. 10 at 7:05 p.m., where a guest from Oakland, Mrs. Jane Callaghan, was having trouble breathing. A local physician was called.

Miss Chris Johnson, Jamesburg Route, driver of a car involved in a single car auto accident 1/4 mile west of the Cachagua Store, was brought by Valley ambulance to a local doctor's office. The call was received Sept. 10 at 9:23 p.m.

Mrs. Thomas C. Valpey, 5 Esquiline Rd., was transported to the Community Hospital on the advice of her physician, on Sept. 11 at 3:45 p.m. The medical emergency was received at 11:29 a.m.

A second medical emergency patient was taken to a local hospital under advice of his physician on Sept. 11 at 3:45 p.m. The patient was Basil Frobisher of Piedras Blancas.

Padres drop opener, 15-6

CARMEL HIGH PADRES were leading 6 to 2 until the final minutes of the fourth quarter at Mission San Jose Saturday, then lost 15-6 on hard-luck breaks. The Padre JVs did better, smearing Mission SJ 20-7. Above, Padre Halfback Preston Jackson nails a pass for the second JV touchdown. Next game is Friday at Gustine.

Lions White Cane Sale September 30, October 1

Some 40 Carmel Valley Lions and their ladies' auxiliary, the Lionettes, will be offering lapel-sized white canes in exchange for donations Friday and Saturday from Carmel Valley Village to the Rancho Shopping Center, according to Lloyd Todd, first vice president.

Proceeds from the annual White Cane Sale will go to help the blind, buy glasses and provide surgery for the needy, and help eye conservation in general through the Lions Eye Foundation which is in affiliation with the Presbyterian Hospital of San Francisco, and a member of Guide Dogs for the Blind.

The Sheriff's Blotter

By REX PRYER

Sept. 18—John Gardiner of Tennis Ranch reported two teen-age boys had trespassed on property.

Sept. 18—Deputy, patrolling behind block of stores with drug store, arrested man charged with drunkenness.

Sept. 17—Sid Knight of Hitching Post bar reported burglary during night; stolen were 10 cases of beer, 11 cartons of cigarettes and about $5 in cash. Entry was by breaking rear window.

Sept. 17—Stuart Crouch Smith of CV Community Swimming pool reported theft of about $4.50 from cash box in dressing room building. There was no evidence of forced entry.

Sept. 16—Rose Neupert of Carmel reported loss at market in Rancho Shopping Center or parking lot, of a gold wrist watch and band, worth $150.

Sept. 16—Chester Storaa of Esquiline Rd. reported unusual noises behind CV post office. Deputies found group of juveniles who scattered.

Sept. 16—Three boys, including two from CV, were cited on the PG cutoff for minors possessing beer.

Sept. 15—Three small boys suspected of damaging Rancho Rd. house were turned over to juvenile authorities.

Sept. 14—Richard L. Gayman of Paso Hondo reported his Weatherby .300 magnum rifle with telescope, worth $420, stolen from his pickup truck which was broken into in front of his house.

Kiwanis Club meets

Niles Pease, partner in CV General Store and Monterey druggist, sounded a dismal note on America's economic future, unless corrections are made, in a talk to CV Kiwanis Club last week, Tuesday. More details on his arguments will be featured next week.

Sharman Smith named T & S Club winner

Sharman Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Smith of Mission Ranch Stables, was high point winner in the 13-17 year-old group in the 11th annual CV Trail and Saddle Club Horse Show. She was pictured in a photo last week which was wrongly captioned "Cindy Cook." She is granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hodges, also of Mission Stables.

Donna Carter presented first place trophy and ribbon for registered half-Arabian horse at halter to Ursula Ballantyne.

ard touring car of Loren Smith of Seaside.

R.H. Hebert and his committee have readied several wagons in which to carry youngsters who have marched in the kiddie parade.

Trail and Saddle Club's colorful "Parade Group" will have 15 teen-aged riders all in matched blue and gold uniforms carrying flags and riding in formation. Mrs. Sal Ocampo and her group of young baton twirlers, the "Jillettes," will be in the march as well as dozens of youngsters who participated in Miss Marge Ibsen's summer "Mission Trails" reading program and will be in Mission Indian or Padre costumes.

The Boy Scouts, Cubs, Campfire Girls, Bluebirds and other children of the area have been invited to join the parade in costume or uniform.

Dr. Dean Campbell will provide shuttle bus service on Holman's grounds all day.
